BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate services were held at the Methodist church Sunday evening, April 17, at 7:30. The church was decorated with roses, ferns, palms and the class colors. Rev. W. L. Hall, of the Methodist church, gave the address, using the class motto, "Not At The Top But Climbing," as the theme of his sermon. The mixed chorus of the school sang two selections, "Heavens Resound" and "Send Out Thy Light." The girls Glee club sang "Bells Of St. Marys."

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement exercises were held Friday evening, April 22, in the school gymnasium which was decorated with white roses, palms and the class colors, blue and silver. The graduates wore caps and gowns for the commencement exercises as well as for the Baccalaureate services. The speaker of the evening was Paul F. Voelker, president of Battle Creek, Michigan, College.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class of 1932 presented "Engaged By Wednesday" as their class play on Friday and Saturday nights, April 15 and 16. The play was presented at the Churubusco Opera House before two very large audiences. All the characters portrayed their parts very well. The cast of characters was as follows:

Martin Henry, the laziest man in the county, by Dale Roberson; Arthur Watson, by Robert Nickey; Jack, Ted and Dick, friends of Arthur's, by Uncas Buiris, Milo Fudge and James Briggs; Miss Abigail Persons, a woman of ideas, by Genevieve Mead; Mrs. Watson, a gentle person, by Evelyn Richey; Lucile Persons, by Bonnie Annie Laurie; Marie, Jane and Mabel, friends of Lucile, by Mary Evelyn Hall, June Duncan and Mabel Jagger; Mary, Martin Henry's aunt, cook at the Persons, by Hildreth Egolf; Other girls, by Rosalyn Rees, Helen Harter, Olaf Raypole; Boy friends, by Jessie Smith, Bernice Cadieux; Gypsies, by Dortha Rindfusz, Ariadne Shively, Edna Mae Roberson; Business Manager, Ida Barcus; Assistant Manager, Florence Bunyan; Director, G. E. Carroil; Assistant Director, Helen Wolf-angle.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior banquet was held at the Mandarin Cafe, Wednesday evening, April 20. The decorations were blue and silver, the Senior Class colors, and white roses, their flower. Memory books and roses were given as favors.

The welcome was given by the Junior president, Norbert Drake. The presentation of the cup by Ida Barcus and acceptance by Harry Zumbrum. Genevieve Mead read the Senior will and Eugene Carriger read the Senior Class prophecy. The Farewell was then given by James Briggs, the Seniors' president. After the banquet all went to a theatre. An enjoyable time was had by all. The menu was:

Fruit Cocktail	Roasted Chicken	Mashed Potatoes	Peas	Sliced Tomatoes
French Dressing	Hot Rolls	Chocolate Sundae	Coffee

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '32

On September 17, 1919, the little bark called the "Ship of 1932," with a crew of twenty five and Miss Ruth Watersen as pilot, set sail on the vast expanse of the ocean, which is known by the name of the Churabusco Public School. It was then known that it would be twelve years before the ship would anchor, but just who all would stick by the ship and be with it when it anchored no one knew. However, as we look over the present crew, we find that Rosalyn Rees, Bonnie Annie Laurie, Genevieve Mead and Helen Harter were the only ones of the twenty five members of the crew who rode its decks from the beginning of the voyage until it anchored. The others of the twenty five had to leave for other ships or else deserted the "Ship Of 32." We find that all during the voyage the ship picked up new crew members, and after Miss Watersen had piloted the ship for two years she submitted her position to Miss Mildred Rust, and Miss Grace Rowe, who directed the crew during the third year of the voyage. It was during this year that June Duncan came from the "Ship Of Nickey School" and Ida Barcus came from the "Ship of the Charter Oak School" and joined the crew of the "Ship Of '32" on the "Busco Public School Ocean."

During the fourth year the ship sailed faithfully along over the peaceful blue waters under the direction of another pilot, Miss Lois Deem, now Mrs. Milo Egolf.

For the fourth year of the voyage Miss Rhua Parks was in charge as pilot, and the ship sailed peacefully on completing successfully another year of the twelve year voyage.

During the sixth year, the ship's crew was directed by Miss Dorothy Hull, now Mrs. Roscoe Ott, and Mr. Clem Earhart. They sailed along in close company with the "Ship Of '31" and "Ship Of '30" in the "Annex."

During the seventh year the "Ocean" was somewhat revised and expanded and sailing conditions were made better. Mr. Willard Phillips and Miss Ellen Cotterly supervised the crew during this year. All during the past six years many new members joined the crew but for various reasons none could find it possible to remain with the ship till the voyage was ended. However, during the seventh year Bob Nickey came from the "Ship of the Nickey School" and joined the crew of the "Ship Of '32" and has remained with it ever since.

Mr. Phillips, with a new aid, Miss Josephine Shriner, piloted the ship through the eighth year. At the end of this year the ship anchored at the port of the "Eighth Grade Commencement" for a brief time to recondition the ship, revise the crew and get certificates certifying that the first eight years of the voyage had been completed, this certificate being the Eighth Grade Diploma.

At this port a couple of our members left the ship and it was found that the crew was becoming smaller so it was decided to pick up some other sailors that had also completed eight years of a similar twelve year voyage.

The ship started with a crew of thirty two and among some of the new members were Dortha Rindfusz, Hildreth Egolf, Mabel Jagger and Ariadne Shively, all from the "Ship of the Blue River;" also Milo Fudge and Edna Roberson from the "Ship of Eel River;" and Evelyn Richey, Jessie Smith and Bernice Cadieux from the "Ship of Collins." Many others joined the crew when the ship anchored at this port but as they could not stay with the ship they did not anchor with it when the twelve year voyage ended.

Since the next four years of the voyage were to be much more difficult, the ship was manned with a larger force of supervisors. During the ninth year the supervisors were Mrs. Ott, Miss Janice Berlin, Miss Fanchon Kline, Mr. Holloway, Miss Avis Roth and Mr. Paul C. Updike, who was later replaced by Mr. L. L. Pefley as captain.

During this year the crew organized and had Robert Nickey as president and Floyd Trimmer for secretary and treasurer. They chose blue and silver as the colors to float on the mast of their ship and they secured a pennant in these colors to carry during the remainder of their voyage. They chose a white rose as their flower and adopted the motto, "Not At The Top But Climbing."

At the beginning of the tenth year James Briggs joined the crew and took the place of Tom Keller, who left for the "Ship of '32" of South Whitley, as class president and June Duncan as secretary and treasurer. The supervisors of the crew

SENIOR PROPHECY—1932

Weary, discouraged, and broken hearted, after wandering aimlessly from the snowcapped peaks of Alaska to the fading blue mountains of Mexico, I, Milo Fudge, determined to collect all of my courage, and come back to the haunts of my former days where I once found paradise but suddenly lost it. I longed to see that cozy little bungalow surrounded by the rose covered picket fence where Minnie, my beloved wife, used to greet me at sundown, at the garden gate. One year of heavenly bliss we spent there but the cruel hands of Fate gripped each of us and tore us apart, and due to the judge's decision, Minnie is now known by her maiden name, Longenecker. For ten years I have wandered, seeking the happiness I once knew.

To my amazement, I saw large mansions extending from where the school house once stood, to the sandy beaches of Blue Lake. Here, I gazed with wondering eyes at a blazing sign which said, "Rindfusz Park." Thinking that Dortha, with her business qualities, might be the owner of this park, I set forth to find the main office. While walking along I passed near a side show where a curly, red-haired girl was attracting a crowd to a side show called "Human Knots." Having plenty of time, I stopped to watch her lovely figure as she did several difficult acts. As she moved by me she smiled and winked and vanished into the tent. I strolled on across the park to the main office where a prim stenographer came briskly forward to meet me. In answer to my inquiry as to who was the owner of this park, she replied, "Dortha Rindfusz." I exclaimed, "She used to be my classmate." Immediately the prim young lady said, "Why, who are you? I was in that class myself." We then introduced ourselves again as we did the first day of school, and I found this young lady to be Jessie Smith.

As it was about lunch time Jessie, both to be friendly and seeing my financial condition, asked me to lunch with her. The restaurant, only a few feet away, Jessie told me was owned jointly by Dale Roberson and his wife, who in 1932 was known as Hazel Green. We sat at a little white table near the front, and as a pretty young waitress came to get our order Jessie said, "Ariadne, do you remember Milo Fudge, who was a classmate of ours? Milo, this is Ariadne Shively."

As the dinner proceeded we conversed about our classmates. I found that Evelyn Richey, the star basket ball player, had married Bink Wise and they were living cozily with five boy children in South Whitley. Jessie continued and said that the shy little Helen Farter met with a piece of great luck, and is traveling companion of a wealthy widow and is at the present time traveling in southern Europe. And Ida Barcus, the champion debater, has taken her sister Roxie's place and is now an old-maid school teacher in Collins. Mary Evelyn Hall, Ida's bosom companion, is now general maid for the Nickey household at Collins. Bob Nickey, the proud father of ten children (including twin girls), I was told had married Jane Brooks, and is now a large onion grower and on the brink of financial independence. Olaf Raypole carried her music talents through the years and has become a famous opera singer in Chicago. At this point our conversation is interrupted as the same red-haired girl that had attracted my attention in the park stepped into the doorway. As Jessie watched me stare at her she said softly, "That's Bonnie Annie Laurie."

To this I replied, "Hum, so that is my old classmate, Bonnie Laurie. She hasn't changed one bit." As Bonnie passed on we continued the conversation, and I learned that the slowly moving Edna May Roberson had settled down on the farm with her husband, Pete Gordon.

I found to my sorrow that the Briggs-Rees romance was not proceeding very rapidly, for Rosalyn was getting tired of supporting her no-account husband, Jim Briggs by taking in washings. It is being rumored that she is beginning to realize that the Sullivan-Rees combination might have been the better of the two.

Since the conversation was becoming sorrowful at this point, the conversation turned to Mabel Jagger and Carl McCoy, who now live near Avilla where they have a very large poultry farm.

BOYS BASKET BALL TEAM OF 1931-32

The first of October, 40 boys responded to the call for basket ball by Mr. Phillips. After several weeks of training the boys went to Arcola where they scored the first victory of the year by a margin of 2 points over their opponents. The next week the boys went to Larwill where they scored another victory; however, the next night they were not so fortunate and were defeated in an overtime game by 2 points.

During January the boys were quite successful and won all of the six games played. But February proved to be an unlucky month, the boys losing five games out of six. On March 4 our boys went to Kendallville where they entered the sectional basket ball tournament only to meet defeat in the first game, which they played with Albion. This year only three regulars graduated, these three being Bob Nickey, Uncas Burris and Dale Roberson.

Our boys made a total of 484 points during the season while, their opponents scored only 469. Bob Nickey was high point man for the season with Uncas Burris as second and Red McCullough third.

C. H. S. GIRLS BASKET BALL TEAM OF 1931-32

The girls this year, under the coaching of Miss Prickett, completed a season of basket ball, during which the losses were greater than the girls desired. However, they came out with a total of 18 points more than their opponents. In the fourteen games C. H. S. girls made 306 points while their opponents made only 288 points. Evelyn Richey is the only member of the team who will graduate this spring.

Front row: Kathryn Zumbrum and Margaret Garrison.

The schedule for the past season was:

INDIANA'S DEBATE CHAMPIONS

Here is the group that brought fame to Churubusco and glory to themselves at North Manchester April 2 by defeating Princeton high school to win the Indiana debating title, and clear the way for the national debate contest to be held in Sioux City, Iowa, in May.

Tournament debates: February 11 at Decatur, won two; February 17 at Columbia City, won one, lost one; February 25 at Huntington, won one, lost one; March 3 at Huntington, won; March 17 at Portland, won.

State final, North Manchester: April 1, won from Michigan City; April 2, won from Flora; April 2, won from Princeton. Unemployment insurance was the question.

Students who have taken part in debate activities this year are: Margaret McMichael, Violet Laurie, Evelyn Hershey, Kathryn Zumbrum, Kathleen Carriger, Evelyn Davidson, Donald Cobb, Genevieve Shew, Jane Brooks, Kenneth White, Charles Fisher, Eugene Carriger, Merritt Miller, Harry Zumbrum and the debaters who debated at the state tourney: Betty Hershey, Margaret Garrison, Mary Evelyn Hall, Norbert Drake and Ida Barcus. Robert Huber, coach.

SPEECH ACTIVITIES

Eugene Carriger represented Churubusco high school in the Indiana Bar Association contest at Columbia City and won second place for our school.

The County Oratorical Contest was held at South Whitley on April 6 this year and Betty Hershey, who represented our school, placed second, winning the silver medal. Norbert Drake represented our school in the County Indiana University Discussion contest, on March 24, at Columbia City, and placed first in the contest, winning the privilege to represent Whitley county in the district contest at Auburn on April 8. Central high school of Fort Wayne won first and represented our district at the state contest on April 22 at Bloomington.

MUSIC AND ART

Band

The school band, which has been directed by Mr. Huber for the past two years, organized at the first of the year for the purpose of putting it on a business basis with the students responsible for their share in making the band prove more successful. Donald Smith was elected president, with Eugene Carriger vice president, Betty Hershey secretary and treasurer and Mary Evelyn Hall librarian.

Last fall and during the summer the band furnished music for several Thursday night concerts. During the year the band put fight into our basket ball team by playing peppy music to inspire our boys at all our home games. The band also took part in a mass band which was sponsored by the News-Sentinel last fall and gave a concert at the South Side stadium in Fort Wayne on September 27. The band also entered the District Band Contest at the North Side Auditorium on April 16.

Orchestra

The orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Sawyer, also has completed a very successful year. They played at the Operetta, for entertainment between acts and also furnished the music for the Senior class play. The orchestra also played at the Baccalaureate services and for the Commencement exercises, and accommodated the business men by furnishing music for the Victory Banquet which was held in honor of the State Debate Champs on April 13.

The members of the orchestra this year were: Mary Evelyn Hall, Kathleen Carriger, Grace Richey, Kenneth White, Evelyn Hershey, Margaret McMichael, clarinets; Evelyn Richey, Alice Longenecker, Naomi Gordon, violins; Eugene Carriger and Betty Hershey, saxophones; Harry Zumbrum and Everett Leitch, baritones; Fred Zumbrum, trombone; Mary Nestel, Donald Smith, euphoniums; Violet Laurie and Hope Rees, basses; and Beverly Davidson, piano.

Glee Clubs

The Glee Clubs this year have furnished music for the churches at various occasions, before the assembly on the Wednesday morning programs and for the Baccalaureate and Commencement services. The boys Glee Club also sang at the Victory Banquet and at the I. U. Discussion Contest at South Whitley. The members of the Glee Clubs also carried parts in the operetta, "Bitter-Sweet Anne," February 31d and 4th, at the opera house.

The members of the Glee Clubs were: Girls, Ida Barcus, Bernice Cadieux, Olaf Raypole, Edna May Roberson, Aradne Shively, Audra Frazier, Helen Frazier, Agnes were Mr. L. L. Pefley, as captain, Mr. G. E. Carroll, Miss Fanchon Kline, Miss Mildred McKee, Mr. Harry Keazy and Miss Mildred Hewins. During this year Dale Roberson, from the "Ship of '32 of LaOtto," joined our crew.

At the beginning of the eleventh year Mary Evelyn Hall, of the "Ship of '32 of Rockcreek," joined our crew and was elected vice president of the class with Woodrow Craig as president and Robert Nickey as secretary and treasurer. The supervisors during this year of the voyage were Mr. Pefley, still captain, G. E. Carroll, Mr. Joe Starkey, Miss Helen Wolfangle, Miss Ursula Flory, Miss Mildred McKee, who was later replaced by Mrs. Lydia Sawyer, and Mr. Robert Huber. At the end of this year the crew of the "Ship Of '32" entertained the crew of the "Ship Of '31" of C. H. S. and the supervisors at a banquet at Cozy Inn and at the Paramount theatre, in Fort Wayne. The crew also presented "Miss Adventure" this year under the direction of Mr. Carroll and Miss Wolfangle.

When the twelfth year of the voyage was started the crew numbered twenty four. James Briggs was elected president with Ida Barcus vice president, June Duncan secretary and Rosalyn Rees treasurer. The ship sailed along peacefully, meeting all odds successfully. However, several members left the crew and we find that when the ship anchored the crew numbered only 21. Mr. L. L. Pefley was again captain and his aids for this year of the voyage were Miss Helen Wolfangle, Mr. G. E. Carroll, Mr. William Simon, Mrs. Cecile May, Mrs. Lydia Sawyer, Mr. Robert Huber, and Mr. Joseph Starkey. Near the close of this year the crew presented "Engaged By Wednesday" and also were entertained at the Mandarin Cafe and Emboyd theatre in Fort Wayne by the crew of the "Ship Of '33." Baccalaureate services were held for the crew at the Methodist church on April 17, preparing for the end of the voyage which would be soon.

On April 22, the "Ship Of '32," having completed the twelve year voyage, anchored at the port of High School Commencement. Here the crew members sadly left their school friends, each going his own separate way to seek for himself the greatest adventure he might find on the great "Ocean Of Life."

There is bound to be a scandal in every class and it seems that the quiet life of an auto mechanic's wife didn't appeal to Mrs. Jack Heiniger who was formerly Miss Mead, so it is reported that she ran away with a travelling salesman. Now there is a divorce pending in the Whitley County Circuit Court.

Our conversation then drifted to one of our star basket ball players, Uncas Burris, who used to be the shiek of the class. Uncas, true to his natural talent, has become a professional basket ball player and it is rumored that he is to marry Virginia Hershev. As it was about time for Jessie to resume her work she concluded her conversation by telling me of Fernce Cadieux who is at the present a kindergarten teacher of the Churubusco school and is the most important member of the faculty. Then, last but not least, Hildreth Egolf owns a beauty shop that is located in the general store at Ari.

Jessie, seeing the smile vanish from my face and a lump rising in my throat and knowing me to be a very sensitive man, asked if my feelings had been injured. I replied that I had been thinking of my former wife, Minnie. At this Jessie replied, "There she is now." I raised my eyes and found Minnie gazing at me. She came forward and exclaimed, "Milo!" and threw herself into my arms. The same Fate that had torn us apart and brought us sorrow, now reunited us and brought us happiness.

SENIOR WILL

We, the senior class, do hereby bequeath Mr. Huber a masculine voice and fewer quarrels with Isabelle.

We, the senior class, do hereby bequeath Mr. Carroll a pair of plaid beach pajamas, and a new book on modern swimming.

We, the senior class, do hereby bequeath Mrs. May the privilege to teach Etiquette to future senior students.

We, the senior class, do hereby bequeath Miss Wolfangle a tiny salamander named Pete with a pug nose.

We, the senior class, do hereby bequeath Mrs. Sawyer a better 6th period assembly.

We, the senior class, do hereby bequeath Miss Prickett a happy married life and a new reducing machine.
